Col. Wm. Stoecker of Omaha, Neb.

will speak on the Prohibition Amendment at the Salem Lutheran Church, Sunday, Oct. 22nd, at 2 o'clock.

Col. Stoecker is a native German, came to America at the age of 18, was for many years successfully engaged in the mercantile business in Nebraska. He was a candidate at the primaries last April for the nomination for Governor of Nebraska. He is a forceful, clean cut, logical speaker, and you will find his lecture highly educative and interesting. In addition to the speaking there will be a good musical program. Come and bring your friends.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges

Wynot Tribune: Mrs. E. J. Moran was a passenger to Dakota City yesterday.

Bloomfield Monitor: Mrs. Voris, of Hubbard, who was here visiting her sister, Mrs. John Grove, returned home Friday.

Sloan, Ia., Star: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bakke and Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Bakke motored to Homer, Neb., last Saturday for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bakke.

Lyons Mirror: Lyman W. White, of Woodbine, Ia., who visited his neighbor of former years, is one of our old Dakota county friends, who married Miss Stella Wood, daughter of Henry W. Wood, one of the earliest pioneer settlers of Dakota county, settling there in 1858.

Fonda, Ia., Journal and Times: Mrs. Lillian McLaughlin, of Emerson, Nebraska, who is visiting at the Kroesen home this week, purchased the J. E. DeWitt home. The house will be occupied by Mrs. McLaughlin, who expects to make her home here, and by Mr. and Mrs. Burt Kroesen and family.

Sioux City Journal, 15: Mrs. Chas. Ellis and Mrs. Jane Babcock were entertained Friday in the home of Mrs. Charles Gilbert, at South Sioux City. Raymond Ryan, 316 Fairmont avenue, suffered slight injuries this morning when an automobile in which he was riding was hit by a South Sioux City car in Third street between Douglas and Pierce streets. H. Adler, 3013 Marshall avenue, who was driving the machine, was not hurt. The motor was demolished.

Osmond Republican: Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Leedom came from Gordon Monday evening and on Tuesday Mrs. Leedom and Mrs. Malt Sageser went to Lincoln to attend the Grand Lodge of the D. of H. and Mr. Leedom for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Thomas and family, and with his numerous friends. Mr. Leedom is just as staunch a republican as ever and had not been in this office five minutes until he had "locked horns" with one of our democratic brethren.

Ponca Advocate: Mrs. C. E. Hedges, Mary Francis and Margaret were in Sioux City last Saturday. Less than fourteen months ago

John L. Kennedy
Republican Candidate for U. S. Senator

Experienced as a Congressman. Closely associated with State and National affairs. Knows the needs of Nebraska people. The logical candidate to elect.

VOTE FOR HIM

WILLIAM P. WARNER

Republican candidate for Congress, 3rd district, Nebraska—48 years in the county. Efficient in everything he has undertaken.

a prosperous bachelor of Daily township owning an improved 160 acres of land worth $100.00 per acre and subject only to a $4,500.00 mortgage, through the machinations of a certain self-ordained guardian whose magnanimous charity (as he himself boasts) extends to every man, woman and child in Dixon county, was induced to exchange this $11,500.00 equity in the Daily farm for an old ramshackle hotel building, worth about $500.00 and located at Dalis, S. D. The hotel building is non-productive and dead property, and the dead property; and the poor unfortunate dupe from the Daily, flimflamed out of approximately $11,000.00, is now an object of sincere pity and is being cared for by his relatives at Hubbard, Nebr., while his pretending friend guardian puts on airs, rides in his automobile posing as an honorable man and is again begging for your votes. Verily this political nimrod is fooling the people a long time! Signed—Guss O'Grady, Kansas City, Mo.

SIDNEY T. FRUM

Republican candidate for re-election to the office of County Attorney. I solicit your vote and support on my past record as an officer.

WHY HE'S FOR WARNER.

A life-long friend of Wm. P. Warner, the republican candidate for congress, in writing to an acquaintance recently in reply to a letter of inquiry, wrote as follows:

"I have known him from infancy. I have known him through all his graduations from Willie Warner, Will Warner, Bill Warner, Judge Warner, County Attorney Warner, Senator Warner and United States Marshal Warner. I have known him intimately for nearly half a century, and today he is just as common, honest and dependable as he was as a boy in his teens. There isn't a particle of guile in his make-up. His well known geniality, frankness and approachability endear him to all who know him. The years have dealt kindly with him as he deserves, and today, a man 50 years of age, he possesses a broad and varied knowledge gathered in his active and useful career. I have seen him work on his farm, which he loves second only to his family; observed him mete out even-handed justice as a judge; heard him fearlessly prosecute evidence; heard him in the senate at Lincoln, and met him frequently during his term as United States Attorney, and I want to say to you that he has been a success in every line in which I have mentioned.

Everything he undertakes is accomplished with dexterity and dispatch. His work in the state senate was a source of pride and satisfaction to his friends and his accomplishments there, and the lawmaking experience he acquired, are a guarantee that he would become a power in congress. He is at once a polished diplomat, a cultivated gentleman, a shrewd lawyer and an energetic and intelligent worker who gets results. He is big mentally, morally and physically. He is generous and just. He is pre-eminently fair and impartial. He is fearless, yet of such a sympathetic disposition that he would walk around a worm to avoid stepping on it. I have known him to telegraph money and employ assistance at Ellis Island to prevent the deportation of a poor Danish girl immigrant for lack of funds, simply because the immigrant's sister, who was a domestic in the home of a neighbor, appealed to him for help. I know of his having traced the young son of a colored seamstress woman in the federal building in Omaha all the way across the continent to San Francisco and up to Sacramento simply to appease the old colored mother's anxiety over the welfare of her offspring. Put him in any state at Lincoln, and met him frequently among them all as a superb specimen of manhood. He's the sort of man you tell your troubles to. He is the fellow you are looking for when you need a big brother. He's the man who is both capable and willing to give you wholesome advice and encouragement. He'll get out of bed any night to perform an act of kindness for another, and he's a firm and faithful friend clear through to the end. It's a pleasure and a privilege to support a man like Wm. P. Warner for congress, because in doing so you have a feeling of confidence that no matter who he is or where he comes from there will be no better or bigger man in congress than he."

SCHOOL NOTES.

By Clarence Linton.

Geraldine Heikes was in school Tuesday. The third and fourth grades made hallowe'en spelling baskets Monday. Ralph Perry enrolled in the sixth grade Monday. The work in penmanship is progressing nicely throughout the grades.

HERMAN NELSON
Hubbard, Nebraska
Democratic Candidate for County Treasurer

Mr. Nelson has been a resident of Dakota county for the past seventeen years, has been a taxpayer and farmer during his residence in the county. If elected he will do his duty as the law requires, in the conduct of the office. He will appreciate the support of his friends in the coming election.

greeting nicely throughout the grades.

Misses Fleming, Cook, Ross and Schriener attended the Emerson teachers' meeting Saturday. Miss Fleming read a paper on Picture Study during the morning study.

A special program on foot ball was given by the high school Friday afternoon composed of the following numbers: Explanation of field, Dewey Heikes; Financing a Foot Ball Team, Bennie Leech; Why Have Foot Ball in the Small Schools, Raymond Ream; What the Community can do to Make Clean Foot Ball, Joseph Culbertson; Foot Ball Ideals, Joseph Kramper. After the special numbers an informal discussion of the game was held and some of the many questions concerning the game were answered.

A very good game took place Friday with Walthill. The Walthill boys always give us a good game of clean sport. Some rapid forward passes made two touchdowns before the game had fairly started, but they were recalled on account of off-side offenses. The first half ended with a score of 7 to 6 in favor of the D. H. S. boys. Two more times the ball was destined to cross the goal, each time in the possession of the D. H. S. boys. Another kick over goal made the score 20 to the 6 made by the one touchdown of the Walthill boys.

Arrangements have been made for a Thanksgiving game at Walthill. Why don't you plan to go? It will be a nice trip for you after an early Thanksgiving dinner. The game will be scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Our return game will be played with Emerson at Emerson this Friday and will be a heavy pull for our boys. A delegation of the high school girls expect to accompany the team and we shall be much pleased to have many others go.

The schedule for the remainder of the season will be as follows: Emerson, at Emerson, Friday, October 20; Homer, at Dakota City, November 3; South Sioux, at Dakota City, November 10; Walthill, at Walthill, Thanksgiving.

I have been a resident of Dakota County for nearly thirteen years; am an owner of real estate located in Dakota County and have paid taxes every year. I have been in the County. My home and all my interests are in Dakota County. You have been kind enough to elect me to one term as County Treasurer of Dakota County, and as the usual custom in the past has been to record a Treasurer a second term I am asking you for re-election. My constant aim has been to conduct the office efficiently and economically, endeavoring to treat you in the same careful and courteous manner in all my business relations with you that I would wish you to accord me.

If I have met with your approval, please tell your friends.

I SHALL VERY MUCH APPRECIATE YOUR VOTE
AND SUPPORT

Respectfully,

JUSTIN S. BACON
